SPAULDING PLUM.

The first of a rare and valuable variety of plum, has never failed to produce a full crop in 20 years.
Flesh pale green, exceedingly firm, of sugary sweetness, though sprightly and of great richness. Ripens from middle to last of Aug.

BURBANK.

A new Japanese variety, but sufficiently tried in this country to warrant its further dissemination ; quality the best ; a vigorous grower and very productive.

GERMAN PRUNE

A very vigorous and productive variety.

VICTORIA.

(SHARP'S EMPEROR.)

One of the most magnificent plums in cultivation ; of large size, good quality.

STECKER LITH. CO. BROOKLYN, N.Y.

STANTON.

An esteemed variety, and of great merit for the family or market. Tree a vigorous, healthy grower, and very productive.

SPAULDING. (August.)

Curculio-proof. Tree a fine extra-vigorous grower. Leaves large, thick, tough, dark green. Fruit large, yellowish green, marbled, thin white bloom. Flesh pale yellow, very firm, sugary, sprightly and very rich. Stone small, from which it parts readily. Quality superb. Excellent for drying and not surpassed for canning. Regular price $1.00.

BURBANK. (Last of Aug.)

An exceedingly valuable sort imported from Japan. A vigorous grower, entirely hardy and begins to bear very young. Fruit large, nearly globular, dark red or purplish; flesh yellow, melting, juicy, rich, sugary. Stone small and free. One of the best for both market and family use. Regular price $1.00.

GERMAN PRUNE. (September.)

A large, long, oval variety, much esteemed for drying; color dark purple, juicy, rich, fine. Tree vigorous and very productive. Regular price 75c.

VICTORIA. (September.)

One of the most magnificent Plums in cultivation; of the largest size, good quality; purplish red color; most abundant bearer. Regular price 75c.

LOMBARD. (September.)

Medium, round, oval; violet red; juicy, pleasant and good; adheres to the stone; productive. A valuable market variety; one of the most hardy and popular. Regular price 75c.

STANTON. (Last of Sept.)

Fruit medium to large, color dark purple, with a beautiful bloom; very productive, ripens from September 15th to October 1st, and has been kept two weeks after ripening with no tendency to decay; as a fine canning fruit it has no superior, and has fine quality as a table fruit. Regular price $1.
